

GREAT BRITAIN QE II gold Machin First Class Counterfeit (1997)

Genuine

Forgery

Forgery

Both stamps are perforated 14.75 and have the security ellipse ovals in their perforations. The tagging bars are much more visible in the counterfeit than on the genuine stamp. We can clearly see the photogravure dots in the Queen's neck in the genuine stamp but they cannot be seen in the offset printed counterfeit.
